

Job Title: Environmental Health & Safety Specialist

The Client is a well known privately owned is a family-owned global food company whose products include: in-store bakery, deli, and prepared foods, and other grocery products with global sales in the 4 billion dollar range.

Role

The Company is seeking a full time Environmental Health & Safety Specialist who is responsible for managing the plant occupational safety program (OSHA), Local, State & Federal Regulatory & Environmental compliance, Worker's Compensation compliance program and the EH&S Training program. The EH&S Specialist is the main liaison between the plant associate's safety activities and the Management and Corporate EH&S Team. The EH&S Specialist must develop and build strong professional relationships with members of the Plant management team, functioning as the subject matter expert in the areas noted above.

Location

Vineland, New Jersey

Key Responsibilities

- Being the Subject Matter Expert on all associate Safety Environmental and Regulatory matters, provides coaching and support to plant teams.
Development and implementation of site-specific policies and procedures within corporate guidelines for assigned locations.
- Conducts Safety, Environmental and Regulatory audits of the facility in order to evaluate compliance, identify areas for improvement and communicates to them directly to the department managers and the Plant Manager.
Responsible for ensuring local plant activities are being conducted as defined under local Regulatory compliance and within Rich's Enterprise Safety Foundations.
- Coordinates training and/or training materials to all plant associates (hourly, leaders, management) in all safety and regulatory programs, documents, and tracks training compliance.
- Leader of the Accident Investigation team, utilizing Root Cause Analysis (RCA) to include 6W2H & 5 Why's or similar techniques to identify causes and corrective actions to prevent similar occurrences.
- Establishes and directs the plant safety shift(s) committees and their activities.
- Main contact with RPC Corporate regarding the Workers Compensation program and back to work policies.
- Assists Plant Leadership in identifying and correcting unsafe behaviors and unsafe conditions to drive a Zero Injury state.
- Provide EH&S oversight on large plant projects, conducts Pre-Start Safety Reviews on all equipment installs and upgrades.

- Administration, documentation, and proper filing of OSHA's Record keeping Standards 29CFR1904, Accident Reports, 300 Log & Form 301, as well as other Regulatory and Safety Compliance documentation.
 - Plant contact for our medical clinic, nurse case managers and insurance carrier representative concerning medical restrictions
 - Assist plant leadership with the design, layout and implementation of access control, CCTV, security systems, security contracts and building safety measures while maintaining consistency and integration with corporate systems.
- Any other duties as assigned by leadership.

Skills + Experience

Knowledge of: OSHA/EPA regulations (29 CFR, 1910 & 1926; 40 CFR) applicable to manufacturing. Knowledge of Industrial Hygiene, Labor Relations, Loss Control, Basic Engineering Principles Knowledge of State specific Workers' Compensation Law/Regulations Completion of OSHA 10 Hour General Industry Course, 30 Hour certification preferred. Strong oral and written communication skills.

Ability to prioritize and deal with multiple and conflicting workload requirements

Education - BS degree preferred or at minimum AA/AS degree required with minimum 3-5 years manufacturing and industrial safety & regulatory work experience

Compensation

$70, 000- $90,000 year plus benefits and bonus potential

How To Apply

Qualified Applicants can send their resume to:

CHELSEA ARMITAGE | PRACTICE LEAD FOOD & BEVERAGES, SUPPLY CHAIN SEARCH

- ✉ ca@leansixsearch.com
- ☎ +1 (647) 510-3958
- 🌐 www.leansixsearch.com

Global executive search for all things supply chain.

